

Thomas Plant Hire endeavors to drive forward a better and brighter future for our communities by getting involved in the places we call home. Regardless of what project we may be currently working on, be it developing new homes or providing essential services, we are mindful of our role in communities throughout the UK and the other countries with which our company extends to. Wherever possible, we aim to make a positive difference to the people and places that welcome us.

Thomas Plant Hire delivers training, provides young people with apprenticeships and workplace opportunities. In our eyes all individuals, irrespective of age, ethnicity, belief etc., have the equal right and opportunity to receive our efforts, time and contributions towards a good cause.

Thomas Plant Hire employees contribute thousands of hours to community related initiatives each year, affecting the lives of countless people. These contributions are delivered as a collaborate effort from all our individual businesses who have been engaged in charity work for many years. TPH as a company are always considerate of how we can contribute to making a difference to charities both local and nationwide, so even when carrying out corporate events, promoting our business, time is always allocated for some form of fundraising.

Such is the enthusiasm of TPH employees for taking on all manner of challenges such as cycling, running and dragon boat racing. Wherever they work, TPH will, wherever is possible, seize the opportunity to involve themselves in community projects and become an active part in the progression of improvement.

Signed
